 TIMOTHY P. CALLAHAN
 SUPERVISORY PATENT EXAMINER

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to the applicants, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows:

Claim 15, line 16: changed "the 'output" to --the output--.

This change corrects an obvious type error, wherein the original version of the claim did not have the apostrophe type symbol prior to "output."

RESPONSE TO AMENDMENT/DRAWINGS

The amendment and drawings submitted on Apr 29, 2005 have been reviewed and considered with the following results:

The drawing corrections, and corresponding replacement sheets, have overcome the objections to Figs. 5-6, which have now been withdrawn.

The new title overcame the original, generic type title, and that objection has also been withdrawn.

The cancellation of claims 1-3 rendered their prior art rejections moot.

Amended claim 11 overcame its rejection under 35 U.S.C. 112. Therefore, that rejection has now been withdrawn.

During a review of all the active claims, a minor oversight was noted within claim 15. This was addressed/corrected by the Examiner's Amendment described above.

There is now no known objection or rejection remaining within the present application.

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

None of the prior art references reviewed and considered shows or discloses the semiconductor device as recited within independent claims 4, 9, 15, and 17. Although numerous references show various circuitry that allows a prescribed potential, applied to a semiconductor region (e.g. the back-gate, body, bulk, or well) of a transistor, to be switched between two different potentials, none of the references shows the potential generator circuit (understood to be used at one type of switching circuit for providing the appropriate potential) as recited. More specifically, none of the references shows or discloses the relationships between the second/third transistors as recited, wherein the second transistor is coupled between the second power supply terminal and the output terminal, and its gate is coupled to the output of either an inverter circuit (as recited within claims 4 and 15) or a comparator circuit (as recited within claims 9 and 17); and wherein the third transistor has its source and gate coupled to the first power supply terminal, and its drain connected to the output terminal. Since there is no motivation to modify or combine any prior art reference(s) to ensure all the claimed limitations between the second/third transistors, and between the second transistor and the inverter (or comparator) are met, the claims are deemed patentably distinct over the prior art of record.

Claims 4-20 are allowed, and have been renumbered as 1-17, respectively for printing purposes. The renumbering takes into account the cancellation of claims 1-3.

Any comments considered necessary by the applicants must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
